

Note: All classes are mandatory only in case of an emergency or illness one can take leave with respected teacher permission. Uninformed leaves won't be accepted and this will leave bad impression on student monthly performance.

Prerequisites : Overcome the theoretical and practical tests that are proposed and perform the formative assessment tests, which will be indicated throughout the course, in order to obtain the corresponding accreditation. Daily study. For a good use of the course, the student will commit to dedicate at least two hours to the daily study. Teaching materials. The student must know that for this course he will be given didactic material protected by copyright. Punctuality. Classes have their established start time that must be respected at all times. Optional reinforcement. The student may request these optional reinforcement classes.

Discipline Rules for Students : Smoking and alcohol are strictly prohibited in the school. If you are having a fast any day, you have to inform kitchen manager for avoiding food waste. Always make discipline, respect teachers and follow all rules. Always be in the time, you are late means will not be permitted to join class. Clear your books of account before departure from Rishikesh Nath Yogshala. Before departure return your books, maps or any goods which you borrowed. Rishikesh Nath Yogshala provides accommodation for a student who join the yoga course. So any friends or relatives will not be included in accommodation however they can stay in school by renting another room. Student have to be present in all scheduled program of Rishikesh Nath Yogshala.

Refund Policy : An advance of a course fees will not be refundable, only in the case of emergency students can join us on other schedules. If student cancel the course after joining it, we accept cancellation but course fees will not be refund in cancellation. There is no charge of course cancellation.